4. If the defendant appears and denies liability, the court shall set the matter for a bench trial and notify all parties.

C. Attorney Fees.

A party requesting attorney's fees shall present to the court a written affidavit detailing the time spent, services rendered, and hourly rate requested.

D. Continuances.

Thereafter, the monthly rotation among the courts will continue in this sequence until further order.

If a Defendant has allegedly committed multiple offenses in different months, the date of the earliest alleged offense shall control the assignment.

B. Criminal Cases Transferred from Muncie City Court or Yorktown Town Court.

1. Any case transferred from the Muncie City Court or the Yorktown Town Court may be filed in the Division of the Circuit Court that holds the highest pending felony charge, regardless of when the misdemeanor crime was allegedly committed.

Lower classes of felonies shall transfer to the court where the case alleging the higher felony offense is pending. A “pending” case is a case not yet disposed by guilty plea, jury trial, bench trial, bench disposition, or dismissal.

D. Filing and Reassignment of class Level 6 felony or D felony Cases.

Any Level 6 felony or Class D felony case may be filed in the Division of the Circuit Court that holds another pending felony charge, regardless of when the Level 6 felony or class D felony offense was allegedly committed.

If a Defendant charged with a pending Level 6 felony or class D felony case is later charged with a higher felony, i.e., Murder, Level 1, Level 2, Level 3, Level 4 and level 5 felonies or class A, class B, or class C felony, the Court with the Level 6 felony or class D felony case shall transfer the Level 6 felony or class D felony case to the court with the higher pending felony case, either on its own motion or at a party's request.

In the event the State of Indiana dismisses a case, any subsequent related cases filed against such defendant within ninety (90) days shall be assigned to the court from which dismissal was taken.

F. Additional Related Charges.

If the State files additional related charges against a Defendant, after the case is initially assigned, the State shall file all additional related charges in the court of initial assignment.

LR18-AR01-DLR-0011
Attorney Fees in Probate Matters

The Delaware Circuit Court has prepared the following guidelines for fees in probate matters in an effort to achieve the following objectives:

1. To establish uniformity in determining a fair and reasonable fee for supervised and unsupervised estates, guardianships, wrongful death actions, and minor's claim settlements in Delaware County, Indiana.
2. To provide a guideline to assist all judges of the Circuit Court of Delaware County in determining fair and reasonable fees.
3. To furnish a guideline to attorneys so that attorneys can forecast to their clients the fees the estate may incur before the administration commences.
4. To assist the legal profession in arriving at a fair and reasonable fee for estate work. This schedule is not a minimum fee schedule but a maximum fee schedule. The Court recognizes that every attorney and personal representative has a right and an obligation to request a fee which is fair and reasonable for the estate work performed, taking into account the provision in the Rules of Professional Conduct which applies to all attorneys admitted to practice in Indiana. Fees should always bear a reasonable relationship to the services rendered. In an uncomplicated estate, a reasonable fee may be less than the maximum fees listed in the following schedule and should not be based solely upon the percentages set out in said schedule.

In determining an appropriate fee, the attorney, client, and Court should consider the following criteria:

1. The time required; the novelty, complexity, or difficulty of the legal questions involved; and the skill required to perform necessary services properly.
2. Who served as personal representative. The Court may consider how much time the attorney devoted to legal matters and how much time the attorney devoted to ministerial functions during supervision and representation of the personal representative.
3. The total fair market value of the probate assets being administered.
4. The character of the probate and non-probate assets which are administered or transferred, including whether non-probate assets exist which must be included for federal or state estate tax purposes, and whether these non-probate assets require more work for the attorney.
5. Whether the probate assets are sufficient to pay for legal services or personal representative fees.
6. Timeliness in performing necessary estate services under statutory requirements, these rules, and the Rules of Professional Conduct.
7. Other factors deemed relevant by the attorney, personal representative, and/or the Court.

Personal Representative and Attorney Fee Schedule

I. Administration of the Gross Estate.

A. Gross Estate Services include, but will not necessarily be limited to, opening the estate and qualifying the personal representative; preparing and filing the inventory; collecting assets; paying claims; preparing and filing non-extraordinary petitions (including but not limited to petitions to sell real or personal property, petitions to deliver personal property to beneficiaries, petitions to abandon real or personal property, and petitions for appointment of appraisers); preparing and filing the final report; obtaining an order approving the final report; distributing assets to beneficiaries; obtaining discharge of the personal representative; preparing and filing the supplemental report after distribution; and preparing and serving all necessary notices on interested parties, including readily ascertainable creditors of the estate, during the estate proceeding.

B. Gross Estate Value means the fair market value of all assets in the decedent's name and included in the decedent's probate estate.

C. Maximum Fees for Administering the Gross Estate: the Court may approve the following maximum fees:

1. Individual Personal Representative:

Fair Market Value Of Probate Estate Including Income	Percent Rate For Individual Personal Representative	Percent Rate For Professional Services of Attorney
First $25,000.00	4%	8%
Next $25,000.00	3%	6%
Next $50,000.00	2 ½%	5%
Next $900,000.00	1 ½%	3%
Next $1,500,000.00	1%	2%
Excess of $2,500,000.00	½%	1%

Where the attorney acts as both the attorney and Personal Representative, the above schedule will be applied.

2. Corporate Personal Representative

Fair Market Value Of Probate Estate Including Income	Percent Rate For Corporate Personal Representative	Percent Rate For Professional Services of Attorney
First $25,000.00	6%	6%
Next $25,000.00	5%	5%
Next $50,000.00	4%	4%
Next $900,000.00	3%	3%
Next $1,500,000.00	2%	2%
Excess of $2,500,000.00	1%	1%

D. Non-Probate Assets.

Non-probate assets are those assets for which the attorney representing the personal representative may assist the transferee of those assets in distribution. Non-probate assets include, but are not necessarily limited to: assets jointly owned which are transferred outside the estate administration; life insurance proceeds; annuities; retirement benefits payable to a named beneficiary other than the estate; and assets held in trust which are reportable on the federal transfer tax return or would be reportable if such return were required. Fee charges for assisting beneficiaries or transferees in transferring Non-Probate Assets shall conform to the hourly rate provision established by the Court in paragraph E below. Unless the will admitted to probate provides otherwise, fees generated by the attorney in administering Non-Probate Assets should be charged to the beneficiary or transferee, and not to the estate.

E. Additional Fees.

Fees computed on the above schedule are intended to cover only the usual and ordinary services that are reasonably anticipated in handling the normal estate. Such fees do not contemplate all work which may become necessary in conjunction with administration, such as will contests; will construction; contested claims; family settlement agreements; death tax complications; petition for instructions; determination of heirship; generating additional income for the estate during administration; and other similar matters. The attorney shall detail the request for additional fees in a Petition to the Court for Additional Fees.

The Court will compensate attorneys for work involving extraordinary service at an hourly rate. The attorney's hourly rate should conform to the prevailing hourly rate for legal services provided in Delaware County, Indiana, at the time the attorney provided the extraordinary services. The Court reserves the right to review and adjust the hourly rate request after considering the attorney's expertise and the nature of the extraordinary services provided.

F. Unsupervised Estates.

The attorney and personal representative should negotiate fees for handling unsupervised estates. The Court shall not hear the requests for fees unless an objection to the closing statement is timely filed. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the fees for handling unsupervised estates should not exceed eighty percent (80%) of the above schedules.

G. Petitions and Hearings on Fee Requests.

All requests for approval of estate fees in supervised estates shall be submitted to the Court in writing, along with an appropriate proposed order. Petitions for fees shall include affidavits in support thereof from the attorney and the personal representative and provide the following information:

1. Details as to the work done by the affiant.
2. Time spent to accomplish said work.
3. Hourly rate used to calculate fees.
4. Total amount of fees being requested.

If the fee requested to administer the Gross Estate conforms to the Guideline in Paragraph I. (C), the Court may waive a hearing on the Petition.

If the petition to approve fees includes a request for additional fees, the Court will schedule a hearing on the petition, unless all interested parties execute a waiver and consent stating they have been advised that the fee request exceeds the Court's guidelines for administering the Gross Estate and that the fee request is for additional services. If a waiver and consent form is filed with the petition for additional fees, the Court, at its discretion, may waive the requirement for hearing on the petition.

H. Instructions to Personal Representatives Required in Unsupervised Estates.

Attorneys shall file the following "Instructions to Personal Representative of Unsupervised Estate" along with the Petition and other paperwork file to open the Estate. The Court may decide not to sign the Order appointing the Personal Representative if the Attorney does not provide an executed copy of the Instructions:

Introduction:

You have been appointed as the personal representative of the estate of a deceased person. By your appointment, the Court has placed in you the highest trust that you will perform your duties in the best interests of all beneficiaries and creditors of the estate. It is important that you fully realize your duties and responsibilities. Listed below are some, but not all of them.

If the Court receives such notice it will set the matter for hearing and require you to personally appear and account to the Court for all actions taken or not taken by you as personal representative.

The Instructions which follow are to be considered by you as Orders of the Court which require you to perform as directed. 11. Have your attorney provide written notice of the administration of the estate to all known creditors of the estate.

III. Guardianship

A. Fees

Attorneys should charge fees generated in guardianship proceedings at the customary and prevailing hourly rates in Delaware County for opening the guardianship; selling real or personal property; assisting the Guardian in filing the inventory and necessary accounting; and providing professional advice.

Attorneys shall submit petitions to approve attorney fees in writing in all cases, along with an appropriate proposed order. Petitions for fees for both the guardian and the attorney for the guardian shall include affidavits in support thereof and provide the same information as outlined in Paragraph IG herein. B. Instructions Required in Guardianships over the Estate.

Attorneys shall, within Ten (10) Days after the Court signs the Order Appointing a Guardian Over the Estate of an Individual, file a copy of the following Instructions, along with the Two (2) Acknowledgements stating that the Attorney has given the Guardian a copy and has discussed the Instructions with the Guardian, and that the Guardian has reviewed the Instructions and agrees to comply with them:

COURT'S INSTRUCTIONS TO GUARDIANS

Read carefully, date and sign one copy and return it to the court within ten (10) days. Keep a copy for your records.

You have been appointed guardian of an individual who, because of age or some incapacity, is unable to care for his or her own financial and/or personal affairs. It is important that you understand the significance of this appointment and your responsibility as guardian.

Upon being appointed guardian, you are required to post a bond in the amount set by the court and to take an oath to faithfully discharge your duties as guardian. The bond assures the court that you will properly protect the assets of the protected person.

Listed below are SOME of your duties. These apply whether or not the protected person is your relative. Ask the attorney for the guardianship to fully explain to you each of the items below and to inform you about other duties you have in your particular circumstances. Although the attorney will file all the papers with the court, the ultimate responsibility to see that all reports and papers are accurately prepared and filed rests with you.

As guardian, you are required:

1. To file with the court, within ninety (90) days after your appointment, a verified inventory of all property belonging to the protected person.
2. To file with the court, within thirty (30) days of the first anniversary of your appointment and, thereafter, every two (2) years, a verified account, this details all property and income received by, and all expenses paid from, the guardianship.

A. Vouchers or receipts or, in the alternative, an Affidavit in Lieu of Vouchers should be attached in order to verify each expenditure.

- B. The present residence and general welfare of the protected person must be stated.
 - C. A report from the treating physician is required if the incapacitated person is an adult.
3. To pay bond premiums and court costs as they become due,
 4. To file federal and state tax returns and to pay taxes for the protected person in a timely fashion.
 5. To open an account, in your name as guardian, in which all of the cash assets of the protected person are deposited. This account shall be used for all payments and disbursements on behalf of the guardianship and the protected person. Cancelled checks or other written proof of payment should be maintained.
 6. To obtain approval from the court to litigate matters concerning guardianship assets.
 7. To file a final accounting upon termination of the guardianship. This should detail all property and income received and all expenses paid, with receipts to verify each expenditure.

A guardian is obliged to encourage self-reliability and independence of the protected person and to consider recommendations relating to the appropriate standard of support.

You must protect and preserve the protected person's property and conserve any property of the protected person in excess of the protected person's needs. Accurate accounts must be kept and guardianship funds should never be combined with your personal funds.

You may not make expenditure of investments from guardianship funds without court approval. Unauthorized use of guardianship assets may result in personal liability and/or criminal prosecution.

If any questions arise during the guardianship, you should consult with your attorney.

GUARDIANS: A GUIDE TO PERFORMING YOUR FIDUCIARY DUTIES I. INTRODUCTION

You have just taken an oath to faithfully discharge your duties as a guardian. This oath was intended to impress upon you that you have been placed in a position of the utmost trust and responsibility.

Most guardians are given the power and duty to handle an incompetent person's financial affairs. Occasionally, however, the court appoints a guardian when the incapacitated adult or minor has no assets or the powers granted the guardian do not encompass the property of the incapacitated person. If your appointment does not include control of any financial affairs, then your duties are limited to the specific purpose for which the guardianship was established.

Most of the remainder of this guide pertains to guardians who are appointed for the purpose of managing the property of a protected person. The specifics of your duties to handle the protected person's property will be discussed shortly, but you'll go a long way toward success by simply remembering that the property you will be handling is not your own. You must handle the property of the protected person as you would have the protected person handle your property.

II. SPECIFIC DUTIES

The person over whom you have been appointed guardian is under some disability which prevents him from competently handling his financial affairs. Your job is to handle this aspect of life for him. There's really nothing mysterious about what you'll be doing. Just as you personally have an income, pay bills, buy clothing and pay taxes, the protected person will in all likelihood have an income, owe bills, need clothing and be required to pay taxes. The only difference between the two of you is that you can handle these tasks on your own while the protected person requires your assistance to accomplish them,

Indiana Law specifically details the duties of the guardian. We now turn to an examination of that law.

A. BOND

In order to protect the protected person, every guardian must post a sufficient bond with the court before undertaking his duties. The amount of the bond is fixed at an amount equal to all of the protected person's personal property, plus the annual rental value of any real estate. While there is no exception to the bond requirement, there may be an alternative. If the protected person owns assets above and beyond those necessary to provide for his needs, you may petition the court for permission to place the excess funds in a restricted account. Typically, a restricted account is a Certificate of Deposit with the following words typed on the face of the document: "not to be cashed without order of Delaware Circuit Court No. ____". If the guardianship is over a minor, the following words may be added: "or upon protected person reaching the age of 18". Provided there exist no other reasons for requiring bond, the restricted funds will then be exempt from the bond requirement.

Finally, you may be wondering why the court may have required only a minimal bond upon your appointment. The reason is simple—neither the court nor you are yet fully aware of the extent of the protected person's assets. Upon your filing of an inventory, the bond may be adjusted accordingly.

B. INVENTORY

Indiana Law requires that every guardian of another persons' property file an inventory of that property within ninety (90) days of the date of his appointment. The inventory serves an important purpose: it apprises both you and the court of the extent of the protected person's property. The inventory which you file must contain every item of the protected person's property which shall come to your possession or knowledge. The property must be classified as to its type (e.g., stocks, bank accounts, real estate) and, if encumbered by a mortgage or other lien, this fact must also be noted.

The fair market value of each item of the protected person's property must be indicated in the inventory. Many items, such as bank accounts, will pose no valuation problems. However, where there is reasonable doubt as to the value of property, the law permits the employment of a disinterested appraiser to assist in the valuation process. If an appraiser is employed, his name and address must be indicated on the inventory.

C. TAKING POSSESSION OF THE PROTECTED PERSON'S PROPERTY

Your letters of guardianship represent your authority to act for the protected person. By representing these to persons or institutions who may be holding the protected person's property, you will be permitted to take that property into your possession.

The phrase "take possession" should not be construed literally. It is not intended that you run out and gather everything the protected person owns so that you can store it in your basement. Rather, you need to contact the persons or institutions holding your protected person's property, either show them or provide them with your copies of your letters, and arrange for the funds or property to be held in the protected person's name with your name listed as guardian. So that no one except you can draw on said funds, do not surrender the original copy of your letters of guardianship—certified copies of your letters may be obtained from the Delaware County Clerk's Office.

D. PAYING THE PROTECTED PERSON'S BILLS AND EXPENSES

Your primary purpose as guardian of an adult incompetent's estate is to manage his financial affairs. As part of your management responsibility you will be required to pay all valid bills, expenses and claims of the protected person while constantly bearing in mind your duty to preserve the assets of your protected person.

In order to pay these bills, a checking account must be open. This account will be in your name as guardian. The fact that it is a guardianship account must be clearly stated on the face of each check. The bills and expenses which a particular protected person incurs will vary according to the circumstances. If your protected person lives in his own home, there will be utility and other bills associated with home ownership. On the other hand, if the protected person resides in a nursing home, these bills may be eliminated and included in a single monthly payment to the nursing home.

In addition to the ordinary and necessary expenses of your protected person, extraordinary claims may have to be paid on occasion. For example, a hospital might present you with a bill for services which it claims to have provided the protected person prior to your appointment as guardian or an individual might approach you and claim that the protected person owes him money on a contract.

The question which you should ask when presented with any bill, expense or claim on your protected person's property is whether the obligation is valid. Your resolution of this inquiry is critical for, if you negligently honor an invalid claim, the court may hold you personally liable for the amount of the protected person's funds expended.

You may also find it necessary or desirable to provide your protected person with a periodic allowance. Once again, since you have a duty to preserve the assets of the protected person, you must take care that the purpose for which the allowance is desired is a valid one.

In either case, whether you are paying bills or are desirous of providing a periodic allowance, you should consult with your attorney. If there is any question as to the legitimacy or necessity of a bill or claim, authority should be obtained from the court before making payment.

These responsibilities as they relate to a minor are different from those of an adult. A minor's guardian has all the responsibility and authority of a parent and, therefore, is personally responsible for the financial support of the minor. As a general rule, the guardian may not spend the minor's funds, but, instead, must preserve them. Only upon a showing to the court that the parents' income is insufficient to provide for the minor's support will the court approve the expenditure of the minor's funds.

E. THE CURRENT REPORT

The law requires that you file a written report of your activities as guardian within thirty (30) days of the first anniversary of your appointment. Thereafter, such reports are due every two years. You fulfill this duty by filing a current report and accounting. If all of a minor's assets are in a restricted account, the court may waive this accounting requirement.

The current report should contain all information pertinent to the protected person's condition, including his or her present residence and general welfare. If the protected person is an adult, a report of the treating physician verifying the incapacitated state of the person and propriety of the living arrangements must be included with the current report.

Regarding the accounting, the current report must include three schedules. The first will show the total amount of the protected person's property included in the inventory and any additional assets received to the date of the accounting. The second schedule must list all expenditures which were made on behalf of the protected person and, if such amounts are approved by the court, they will be credited against the amount of property for which you are chargeable. Finally, the third schedule will be a recapitulation, and it will show the balance on hand after subtracting the credits you are claiming from the total amount of the property which has come into your hands. The balance on hand should list what assets you still hold. In order to verify your expenditures made on behalf of the protected person, you are required to attach cancelled checks or an Affidavit in Lieu of Vouchers, to the current report.

By now you should have realized that accurate record keeping is essential to the preparation of an acceptable current account. Remember that YOU are responsible for the protected person's property and that you are held personally liable for the expenditures of any amount which cannot be substantiated.

F. THE FINAL REPORT

A written Final Report is required in all guardianships. Most guardianships are established because of the protected person's age: he is either too young (under eighteen) and, therefore, legally disqualified from handling his own financial affairs or old age has in some way deprived him of the ability to handle this aspect of his life. Therefore, most guardianships terminate either upon the protected person's reaching majority or upon death.

When it is time to terminate the guardianship, you will need to file a final report. The report must indicate the reason for terminating the guardianship and must detail the disposition which you propose to make of the protected person's assets.

If the protected person is living, a hearing will be set to review the Final Report. A copy of the report must be furnished to the protected person and the protected person can file written objections before the hearing date. The court will examine the report to assure that your proposed disposition of the protected person's property is acceptable. The final account will be examined to assure that the expenditures which you made since the last accounting are permissible. Assuming the court approves, you will then be discharged from your duties and the guardianship will be closed.

III. CONCLUSION

As guardian, you may be faced with difficult decisions as to how you should be handling the affairs of your protected person. You should realize that you need not make these decisions alone. If there is an expenditure which you desire to make or a sale of any of the protected person's personal or real property, you should consult with your attorney who will petition the court for its approval. If the court agrees with your proposal, it will enter an order to proceed. If the court disagrees, then an expenditure or sale for which you might have been held personally liable will have been avoided.

You are encouraged to contact your attorney to assist you with your duties. Since Indiana law and Delaware County Court policy forbids employees (including judges and court personnel) from practicing law, an attorney will be your sole source for counseling on legal matters.

Finally, don't be overwhelmed by your duties. Remember that the property you'll be handling is not yours, and if you handle the protected person's affairs as you would have him handle yours, then you should not have any problems.

I acknowledge receipt of a copy of the above instructions and have read and will follow these instructions carefully. I agree to properly carry out my duties.

A. Uniform Jury Selection.

The jury administrator and the supervising judge under the plan will provide a uniform system of jury selection for the courts ensuring that persons selected for jury service are selected at random from a fair cross section of the population of Delaware County. A computerized jury selection system will be fair and will not violate the rights of persons with respect to impartial and random selection of prospective jurors.

B. Jury Selection Plan.

The jury administrator, under the supervision of the supervising judge, shall prepare a written plan for the selection of grand and petit jurors in the county. The plan must be designed to achieve the objectives of, and otherwise comply with Indiana Jury Rules. The Jury Selection Plan of the jury administrator is attached hereto and marked as Delaware County Jury Selection Plan.

C. Master List.

The jury administrator shall compile and maintain a master list consisting of the approved Jury Pool Master List for Delaware County.

D. Juror Service.

Names must be drawn for juror service quarterly, based on a calendar year commencing in January.

1. The jury administrator shall create and file an alphabetical list of names drawn under this section. The alphabetical list may be in the form of a serial listing or discreet computer record filed together to constitute the alphabetical list. Names may not be added to the alphabetical list, except by order of the court. Neither the names drawn nor any list compiled from the alphabetical list may be disclosed to any person other than by order of the supervising judge.
2. Names must be drawn randomly pursuant to Jury Rule 3.
3. Names drawn from the master list may not be returned to the master list until all nonexempt persons on the master list have been called.

E. Random Drawing of Names.

1. The master list will contain names in a sequential order, such as a numeric sequence, and drawn randomly from the Jury Management System through INCITE.

F. Jury Qualification Form

The provisions of Jury Rule 4 will be followed in that not later than 7 days after the date of the drawing of names from the master list, the jury administrator shall cause to be mailed to each person whose name is drawn a juror qualification form.

1. The form will be designed to reflect the prospective juror's name, address, and age.
2. Whether the prospective juror is a citizen of the United States and a resident of the county; is able to read, speak and understand the English language.
3. Has any physical or mental disability impairing the person's capacity to render satisfactory jury service
4. If a prospective juror is unable to fill out the form, another person may fill out the form for the prospective juror. If the form is completed by a person other than a prospective juror, the form must indicate that another person has done so and the reason for doing so.
5. If it appears there is an omission, ambiguity, or error in a returned form, the jury administrator shall resend the form, instructing the prospective juror to make the necessary addition, clarification, or correction and to return the form to the jury administrator not later than 10 days after its second receipt.
6. A prospective juror who fails to return a completed juror qualification form as instructed may be directed by the jury administrator to immediately appear before the jury administrator to fill out a juror qualification form.

G. Disqualification for jury service

The supervising judge or the jury administrator shall determine solely on the basis of information provided on a juror qualification form or interview with a prospective juror whether the prospective juror is disqualified for jury service.

1. The jury administrator shall enter this determination in the space provided on the juror qualification form or electronically and on the alphabetical list of names drawn from the master list.
2. The ISSUING judge, upon request of a prospective juror, shall determine on the basis of information provided on the juror qualification form, correspondence from the prospective juror, or an interview with the prospective juror whether the prospective juror may be excused from jury service. The jury administrator shall enter this determination in the space provided on the juror qualification form.
3. A person who is not disqualified for jury service may be excused from jury service only upon a showing of undue hardship, extreme inconvenience, or public necessity, until the time of the next drawing when the person is summoned. Appropriate records must be maintained by the jury administrator to facilitate summoning.

H. Exemption

A person who has completed a term of jury service in the twenty-four (24) months preceding the date of the person's summons may claim exemption from jury service.

I. Deferral

The judge or judges' designee may authorize deferral of jury service for up to one (1) year upon a showing of hardship, extreme inconvenience, or necessity. Deferral requests made after the issuance of summons for prospective jury duty must be approved by the Issuing Judge. The Issuing Judge may determine if the deferral request may be made by fax or in person. Deferrals may be given one (1) time per year.

Upon receipt of an order for a grand jury, the jury administrator shall draw at random from the qualified Grand Jury Master List twenty (20) qualified jurors and direct them to appear before the supervising judge. The supervising judge shall randomly select six (6) jurors after explaining to the twenty (20) prospective jurors the duties and responsibilities of a grand jury.

The names of qualified jurors drawn and the contents of the jury qualification forms completed by those jurors may not be made available to the public until the period of service of those jurors has expired. However, attorneys in any cases in which these jurors may serve may have access to the information.

K. Preservation of Record

After the period of service for which names were drawn from the master jury list has expired, and all persons selected to serve as jurors have been discharged, all records and papers compiled and maintained by the jury administrator or the clerk must be preserved by the clerk of the courts for the period prescribed by rule of the Indiana Supreme Court. The records and papers must be available for public inspection at all reasonable times.

A. Assets

1. The assets seized by state, city, county, and town law enforcement officers pursuant to I.C. 34-24-1-1 and I.C. 34-24-1-2 shall be inventoried and kept until adjudication of the civil drug forfeiture case pursuant to I.C. 34-24-1-2. For racketeering forfeitures, see I.C. 34-24-2-2.
2. The State of Indiana shall file the forfeiture action as a miscellaneous civil (MI) action in the Circuit Court Division where the State either has filed or is required to file the related criminal action per Local Rule. If the State does not intend to file a criminal action, the State shall then file the forfeiture as a miscellaneous (MI) action in the court where the criminal case would have been filed.

B. Adjudicated Drug Forfeitures

1. All drug forfeitures must be adjudicated pursuant to I.C. 34-24-1-4. See I.C. 34-24-2-1 et seq. for racketeering forfeiture procedures. See I.C. 34-24-1-9 for situations where the prosecuting attorney determines that the evidence should be turned over to the Department of Justice.
2. Pursuant to I.C. 32-24-1-3 (a), if the respondent has filed an answer, the court shall schedule a hearing to determine the legitimacy of the forfeiture by a preponderance of the evidence. Pursuant to I.C. 32-24-1-3(d), if the respondent does not file an answer in a timely manner, the court, upon proper motion, shall enter judgment in favor of the State.
3. As part of any judgment in favor of the state, city, or county, the court shall determine the amount of law enforcement costs, which shall include the costs of the police agencies as well as the costs of prosecuting the civil and criminal actions. See I.C. 34-6-2-73. “Any excess in value of the proceeds or the money over the law enforcement costs [shall] be forfeited and transferred to the Treasurer of State for deposit in the common school fund.” I.C. 34-24-1-4(d)(2) (D).

C. Non-Cash Assets

1. Non-cash assets may be delivered for a period not to exceed three years to the city, county, or town law enforcement agency, which seized the property. After that period, the property shall be delivered to the Sheriff for public sale. I.C. 34-24-1-4(c).
2. An inventory of such assets should be made (which should correspond with the property booked into the property room), and the property delivered to the Sheriff for the next public sale. Public Sales should occur at least once a year.
3. In each action, the State shall file with the Court a report of the sale of all such property, together with proposed disposition in accord with the original determination of law enforcement costs, including those due the Criminal Justice Institute Grant Fund Program Income Account. The Court shall review and approve the report. The forfeiture order allowing use of non-cash assets shall require the sale thereof and a report to be made to the Court within three years. The cash shall be receipted into the Clerk’s trust account for payment into the appropriate general fund account of the city, county, or town, and, when appropriate, to the State Treasurer for the common school fund. Cash ordered forfeited by the Court should likewise be receipted into the Clerk’s trust account. When the monies are paid over to the appropriate general fund, the receipt

(from the city) or the quietus (from the county) should be filed with the Court, as well as the receipt from the State Treasurer in the case of payment to the Common School Fund.

Note: At present, federal forfeiture funds shared with a local law enforcement agency are to be sent to the governmental unit of which that agency is a part. Disbursement of the funds is to be by the fiscal body of that unit (City Council for Muncie, County Council for Delaware County) in accord with Federal guidelines.

LR18-AR00-DLR-0062
Local Rule Governing the Collection of Personal Property Taxes

The Judges of the Delaware Circuit Court hereby issue the following Local Rule in relation to collecting personal property taxes:

A. Using the Circuit Courts to Collect Personal Property Taxes:

1. Indiana Code Section 6-1.1-23-9:

Pursuant to Indiana Code Section 6-1.1-23-9(c), the Treasurer files the record of delinquent personal property taxes with the Clerk of the Court, and the “amount of delinquent taxes, penalties, and collection expenses stated in the record constitute a debt of the named taxpayer.” The statute further provides, “This debt in all respects has the same force and effect as a judgment.”

The Treasurer shall not initiate any legal action in a court in Delaware County to enforce a judgment for delinquent personal property taxes except as provided by statute, as follows: (1) in order to obtain a court order restraining the taxpayer from transacting business in the county, pursuant to Indiana Code Section 6-1.1-23-10(b); (2) to request attorney’s fees pursuant to Indiana Code Section 6-1.1-23-10(e); or (3) to set aside a judgment for personal property taxes pursuant to Indiana Code Section 6-1.1-23-12.

A taxpayer may open a cause of action in the Delaware Circuit Courts to set aside a judgment for personal property taxes pursuant to Indiana Code Section 6-1.1-23-12.

2. Clerk’s Duties:

The Clerk of Delaware County shall not open for filing in the Circuit Courts in Delaware County any legal action to enforce a judgment for delinquent personal property taxes except as provided in Section A(1). If the Treasurer presents for filing in a Circuit Court a pleading related to personal property taxes, and if the Clerk is not certain whether to accept the pleading, or to open the case for filing, the Clerk shall consult with the Judge designated by the Board of Judges of the Delaware Circuit Court, who shall instruct the Clerk whether to accept the pleading or open the case for filing.

If the Designated Judge is not available and action is necessary before the Designated Judge becomes available, the Clerk shall refer the issue to the Court Administrator, who will consult with a judge of the Delaware Circuit Court.

B. Adjudicating Attorney Fees for Collecting Personal Property Taxes:

Pursuant to Indiana Code Section 6-1.1-23-1.5, the Treasurer may enter into a contract, subject to the county executive’s approval, for services considered necessary to collect delinquent personal property taxes.

Pursuant to Indiana Code Section 6-1.1-23-10(e), the Treasurer must file a petition in the Designated Judge’s Court for approval to pay attorney’s fees for legal services not related to formal judicial proceedings. The Treasurer shall file the petition in the “Miscellaneous” Docket for the Circuit Court in which the Designated Judge is serving. The Designated Judge shall approve the attorney’s fees for collecting personal property taxes before the Treasurer makes payment, in all cases not formally filed in a court.

In determining fees for collecting delinquent personal property taxes, the court will consider the contract executed by the Treasurer and the attorney pursuant to I.C. 6-1.1-23-1.5. The Court must also consider the factors established in Rule 1.5(a) of the Rules of Professional Conduct in determining the fees.
